APRIL 1, 1878. The stable of Mr. T. S. Hall, at Grand Hill, was fired by a negro boy, Jack Wells, on Saturday morning, with a quantity of stable at the time. The boy acknowledged the deed and has been sent to jail. Mr. Hall was within about a mile of home, on his way from his brother's, in Henrico, when the fire occurred. His other buildings were saved with difficulty by his neighbors.

There has been a number of incendiary fires lately in our county, and the jail is getting pretty well filled with the parties charged with the work. One man had his house robbed of $300 in money and burned by the robber. He was found out by using the money, and is now in jail, it is said, with part of the gentleman's clothes on. Mr. Anderson Wright, at Rock Mills, had his dwelling-house burned accidentally about a week ago. We have had very dry weather for some time past until last Saturday night, when we had a good rain.

The late frost injured the early fruit, but did not entirely destroy it. Our wheat is looking remarkably well. Everything is dull amongst us. Farmers seem to be discouraged and less active in preparing for a tobacco crop than formerly.

PAMPLIN'S, VA., April 2, 1878. A shocking occurrence took place in this county last Saturday night. Mr. James G. Woodson, an old citizen about seventy years of age, was burned to death in his house. He then gave the alarm in the neighborhood, but before assistance could be rendered the house was entirely destroyed, together with all its contents. As soon as the heat would admit of it the bones of Mr. Woodson were gathered up and buried. Mr. Woodson at one time lived in Richmond, where he has a step-daughter now living. From all accounts the fire was entirely accidental.

So far as your correspondent has seen, the wheat crop in this section is looking unusually well.

There were three negro men whipped at Wright's mill last Saturday evening, by or-der of Justice Dunn, for bog-stealing. The manner in which it was done seems to be unsatisfactory to hog-raisers, as the whipping was done over their shirts, "which should have come off by all means." Patrick Quarles, Robert Ragland, and Wat Watson were the culprits. Messrs. F. T and T. M. West were the parties upon whom the theft was committed. Constable W. D. Editors Dispatch: The literary societies of Hampden Sidney being secret, it has been the custom annually to have a public debate, which event took place to-night, and debate, there are also declamations by representatives from the freshman class and orations from two members of the junior class. The proceedings to-night were presided over by Judge A. D. Dickinson, who did the honors in his usual happy style.

Lord Salisbury's circular has increased the friendly disposition in Vienna towards England. Germany is doing everything possible to revive the congress scheme.

The Telegraph's correspondent at Pera understands that the Austrian embassy there has received a dispatch to the effect that Austria must support England's demand for a full discussion of the provisions of the treaty with a view to some important modifications.

LONDON, April 3 .- This morning's news shows little change in the position of the Eastern question, as General Ignatieff only arrived at St. Petersburg from Vienna vesterday evening.

The effect of his communication is vet unknown, but a special to the Vienna Fremdenblatt from Berlin, and a dispatch from St. Petersburg to the London Times, state simultaneously that there are some grounds for expecting a renewal of the congress necotiations on the basis of the proposal of Prince Bismarck that the Powers are to be and 1871. Such a course would enable Russia, on the discussion of each article of the treaty of Paris, to bring forward the stipulations of the San Stefano treaty, and defend them as the most suitable substitution for corresponding clauses of the act of 1856. No authentic information of the proposal has yet been made from any side, however, and the Agence Russe yesterday, it must be remembered, after stating that General Ignatieff's mission had not failed, as he was simply instructed to give and receive friendly explanations, said, relative to the attitude of than a change in any petty office. THE POSITION OF ENGLAND AND AUSTRIA, &C. LONDON, April 3 .- The Times, in its leading editorial to-day, says: "The main point in the present posture of affairs is that Austria and England are as one in their view of the treaty of San Stefano and of the only means by which, without war, it can be brought into harmony with the just claims of the other Powers. The public opinion of Europe is with them, and if they act together with firmness and loyalty Russia may be induced to withdraw from her position, which would then be obviously untenable." The Manchester Guardian has a dispatch from Salonica saying: "The English Consul is engaging interpreters knowing the Greek, Turkish, and English languages." A deputation of the National Liberal Federation to protest against the attitude of the Government and express their disproval at the calling out of the reserves, and to proclaim the desire of the Liberal the Westminster Palace Hotel this afternoon by Lords Granville and Hartington. The deputation numbered about five hundred representatives from all parts of the Kingdom. Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, member of Mr. John Bright introduced the deputation to Lords Granville and Hartington. Lord Granville, addressing the deputation, said that he required no stimulus to adopt a course likely to prevent the country from being dragged into a war which neither its honorable engagements nor national interests demanded, but it would be deceivng themselves and Russia to conclude that the opposition could prevent the Government from going to war if the Government was bent on a warlike policy. Lord Hartington said that the present duty of the opposition was to interpose by every means in ts power objections to any rash and ill-con-CHICAGO, April 3.-In the local election sidered action of the Government the result

LORD SALISBURY'S CIRCULAR AND THE RUSSJAN REPLY.

London, April 3.-The Vienna propers commenting on Lord Salisbury's circ' alar to the Powers, say that Austria and Fingland are agreed regarding Lord Salisbur y's criticism of the treaty of San Stefano and steps MEMPHIS, April 3.—A terrible hail-storm necessary to protect the interests of both States, and express the conviction that only by the deference of Russia t, Lord Salisbury's views can war between England and Russia be avoided.

The Pall Mall Gazette this afternoon The Pall Mall Gazette this afternoon prints a special from P.erlin, which says:

"A Russian reply to Lord Salisbury's circular is preparing. Prince Gortschakoff, the Russian Prem'er, said he was anxious to issue it as soon as possible, to remove three hoops, $1.75@$1.85. SALTHUR HORSEN SEE IN COLUMN
